2. Pursuant to M.P.E.P. §606.01, this title has respectfully been changed to read as follows:

-- DISPLAY OF SOFTWARE NOTES INDICATING THAT CONTENT FROM A CONTENT PROVIDER SITE IS AVAILABLE FOR DISPLAY --

3. Double patent analysis has been performed with respect to issued patents having common relationship of inventorship and/or ownership with respect to the above-allowed claims, none are found to warrant a double patenting rejection.

4. The category process claims (1 and 74) seems to be limited to tangible embodiments for at least the following reasons. Specifically, in view of the specifications paragraphs [0009 and 033] which disclose a computer readable storage medium which stores the program code which, when executed by a computing device, performs the claimed functions. The display of content received from a content provider (i.e. repeatable concrete results), which further requires at least a hardware component, which as described by the specification includes a personal computer for displaying the note. The implicit processor and/or equivalents for executing the code recited in the claims require the use of hardware to accomplish the step(s), thus tangible. The computer-readable medium/media is limited to tangible embodiments, because it has been defined/exemplified as including tangible embodiments e.g. a storage. As such the claim is limited to statutory subject matter.

5. Any comments Applicants considers necessary must be submitted no later than the payment of the Issue Fee and to avoid processing delays, should preferable accompany the Issue Fees. Such submission should be clearly labeled " Comments on Statement of Reasons for
